new! horoscopes

Our fab new astrologer, Jane Dimond, styles up your stars, while the Venus Vector sheds light on your fashion direction...

birthday girl

GEMINI

Lights, camera, action! You are in the cosmic spotlight so make maximum impact by really going for it – personally and professionally. If you're in a rut, this is a great time to start afresh, especially around the 8th. Jupiter swings in to your money zone at the end of June, which hints at wealthier times ahead...

Venus Vector:

While you wait for the pennies to roll in, maximise Venus's current canny mood and grab a fashion bargain (or flog your so-last-season items on e-bay!).

my gemini style

Amelia Critchley, a Marketing Student from Chelmsford, Essex, was born on 23 May, 1991.

I would say my style is quite casual yet girly, but I like to edge it up with biker boots or statement jewellery. This summer's 90s trend is great – I will be living in oversized, checked shirts, vintage denim shorts, dungarees and crop tops – all with these amazing, monochrome boots from Topshop!

Planetary Post-it
Fashionista Venus clashes with a rebellious Uranus on the 12th – so this may be a tricky day to pull off an edgier look. Playing it safe is likely to be the better option.

Planetary Post-it
The Moon doesn't just affect our emotions; many people believe its gravitational pull can also influence hair growth. If you want longer hair (and quickly!), try getting it cut at the New Moon (8 June) or a day or two either side.

cancer

Don't force yourself to be the dancing queen – recharging your batteries to think about what you really want puts you in pole position to maximise your stunning cosmic line-up next month.

Venus Vector: The transit of Cancer gives you a fabulous inner glow – you'll look good in a bin liner, so wear whatever you want!

scorpio

Scorpios love digging beneath the surface – and your ruling planet, Pluto, has you in particularly inquisitive mood this month, probing something that just doesn't add up. You'll have it all solved before June's out.

Venus Vector:

You're in an adventurous fashion mood, but watch out for over-spending.

aquarius

Uranus and Pluto's movements indicate unexpected developments that will affect your working environment. What's more, Jupiter promises greater fulfilment and adventure ahead, too!

Venus Vector:

Practicality and sportiness feature in your fashion choices. A bomber jacket is ideal.

leo

Your social life's kicking and you may meet someone new around the 8th – so don't let work (espeh a jealous colleague!) overload your mind. The Full Moon on the 23rd will reveal what's what...

Venus Vector:

Fashion-wise, you're unusually reserved, either dressing down or more 'mystically'. Purple works well for you.

sagittarius

Fun-loving joker of the zodiac pack you may be, but you're busy analysing your finances (or lack of!). Your chart also indicates a romantic surprise and a flash of creative genius.

Venus Vector:

You're veering towards 'flaunt-it' clothes – but go for pencil skirts rather than playsuits.

pisces

A romance or creative project brings some wonderfully magical moments. But if your head's in a muddle, a mid-month event will give you fresh clarity.

Venus Vector:

This month is all about fun, flirting and expressing yourself. Hot pants, playsuits, a totally new hairdo – take your pick!

virgo

Pluto adds intensity to romantic and creative passions so don't allow yourself to be controlled in these areas. Great opportunities are coming your way so make sure you've got the freedom to explore them.

Venus Vector:

Venus steers you towards fashion with a conscience – think organic cotton and slogan T-shirts.

libra

Don't worry about putting your career goals on the back burner to attend to a domestic issue that's pulling at your emotions. Jupiter's transit ensures there will be plenty of time in the coming months to further your ambitions.

Venus Vector:

You're feeling a no-nonsense fashion vibe – a skirt suit is ideal.

capricorn

With the cosmic emphasis shifting from your most hard-working (and, frankly, boring!) chart zone, you'll have more time to play this month. Even romance is well-starred around the 7th, you lucky girl...

Venus Vector:

Fashion-wise, you're going feminine and classic. Think florals and summer tweeds.

Planetary Post-it
Mercury turns retrograde (backwards) on 26 June, increasing the likelihood of misunderstandings and misinterpretations – so try to have any important discussions before then!

taurus

You're torn between the familiar and the unknown, as the cosmos exerts a powerful pull for change. Jupiter's transit suggests you don't need to look far from home for the growth you crave.

Venus Vector:

Fashion is closely linked to self-confidence this month, so just wear what you know you look great in.
